

Family Promise of the Capital Region engages the community in support of families facing homelessness, providing temporary shelter, wraparound services, and the guidance they need to build a brighter future.

---